My sincere best wishes for a very happy future man. I have enjoyed having you in class.
Mr. Dye

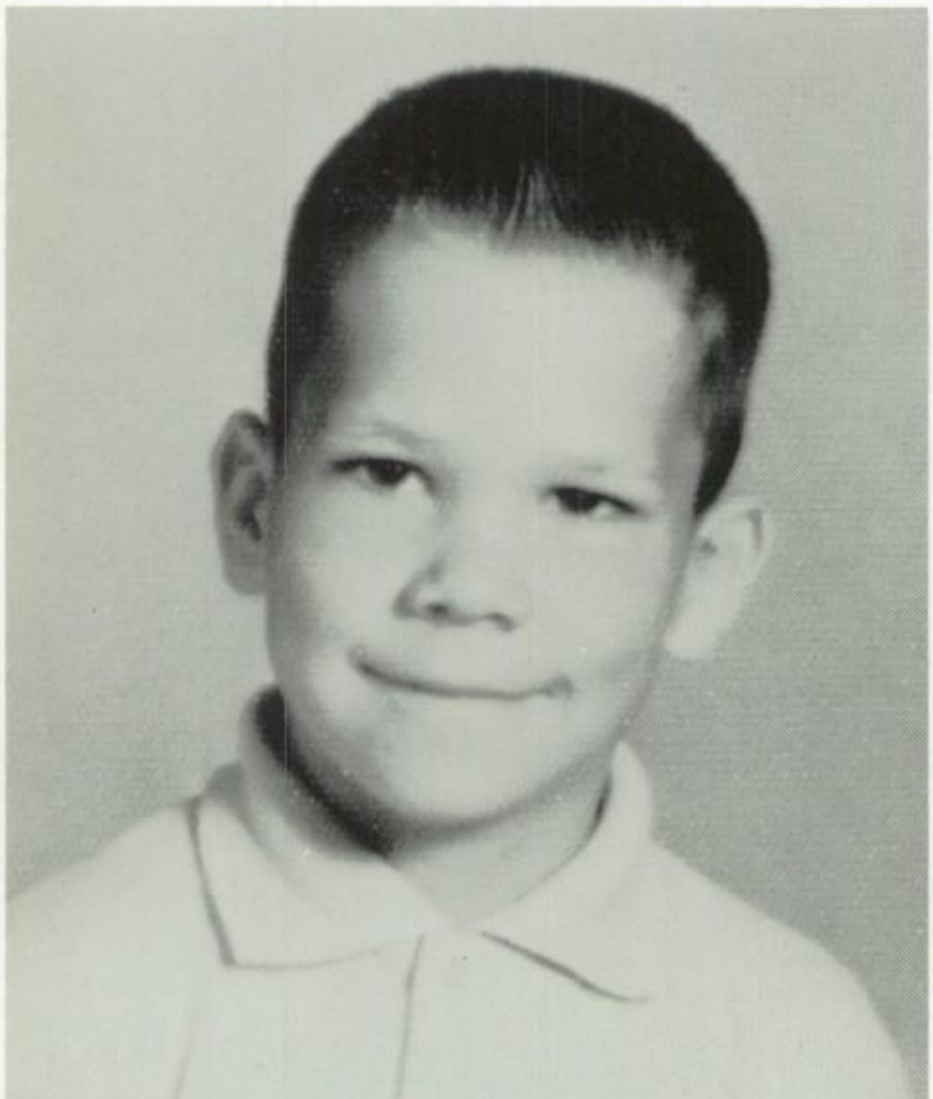
Dedication

The Senior Class of 1965 takes great pride in presenting The Fortress to a man who has given his all to the guidance of any troubles and sorrows we, as students, may have experienced. His patience and humor have made his classes a pleasure in which to work, study, and learn.

May many others come to know this man as we do. May he always lead a rich and fulfilling life.

To you, Mr. Dye, we dedicate our yearbook.

In Memoriam



RONALD ALLEN ARMSTRONG

FREDERICK THOMAS HEAVENER

Little Boy Blue

The little toy dog is covered with dust,
But sturdy and staunch he stands;
And the little toy soldier is red
with rust,
And his musket molds in his hands.
Time was when the little toy dog was new
And the soldier was passing fair;
And that was the time when our
Little Boy Blue
Kissed them and put them there.

"Now, don't you go till I come,"
he said
"And don't you make any noise!"
So, toddling off to his trundle-
bed,
He dreamt of the pretty toys;

And, as he was dreaming, an angel
song
Awakened our Little Boy Blue--
Oh! the years are many, the years
are long,
But the little toy friends are true!

Aye, faithful to Little Boy Blue
they stand,
Each in the same old place---
Awaiting the touch of a little hand,
The smile of a little face;
And they wonder, as waiting the long years through
In the dust of that little chair,
What has become of our Little Boy
Blue,
Since he kissed them and put them
there.

Seniors of 1965
Fort Ashby High School
Fort Ashby, W. Va.

Dear Seniors of 1965,

At last you have become Seniors and graduation is drawing near. Some of you are prepared to consider these past four years the completion of your education, others are looking forward to attaining a higher goal. Whichever you choose, remember that we, as your school, have tried to give to you the education to allow you to become good solid citizens.

As you strive to be successful in life, never forget that to become a success you must be willing to work hard and to experience failure. Only time can give the wisdom to understand what life can hold for you.

Congratulation Seniors! It has been a pleasant experience working with you for the past four years. Good luck and happiness to all of you.

Sincerely,

J. Wm. Marker, Principal

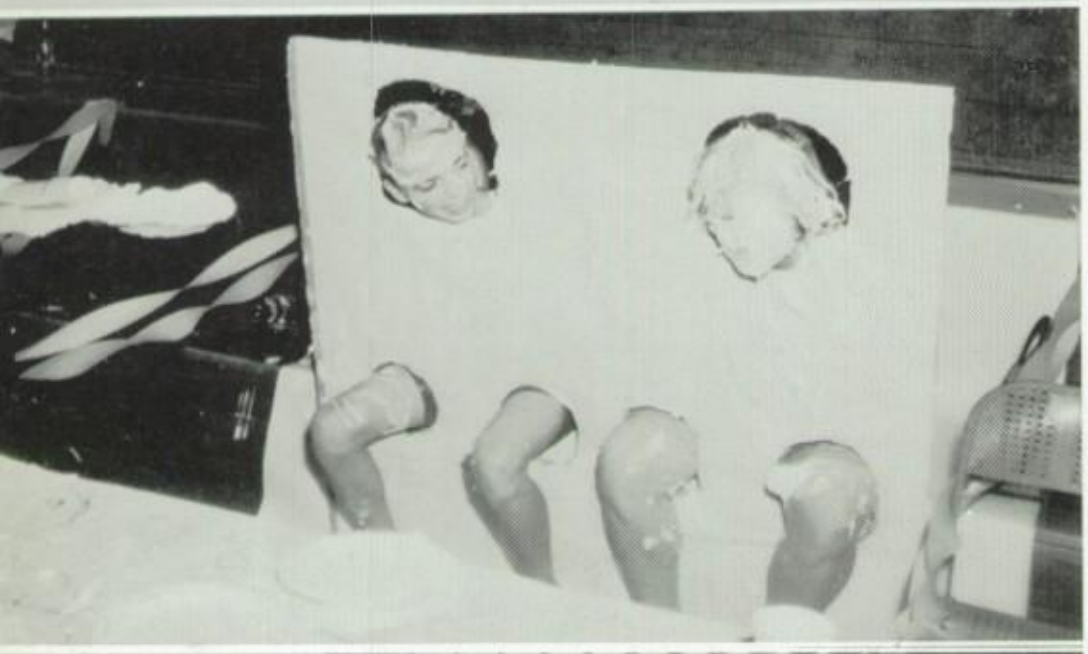
Activities and Events

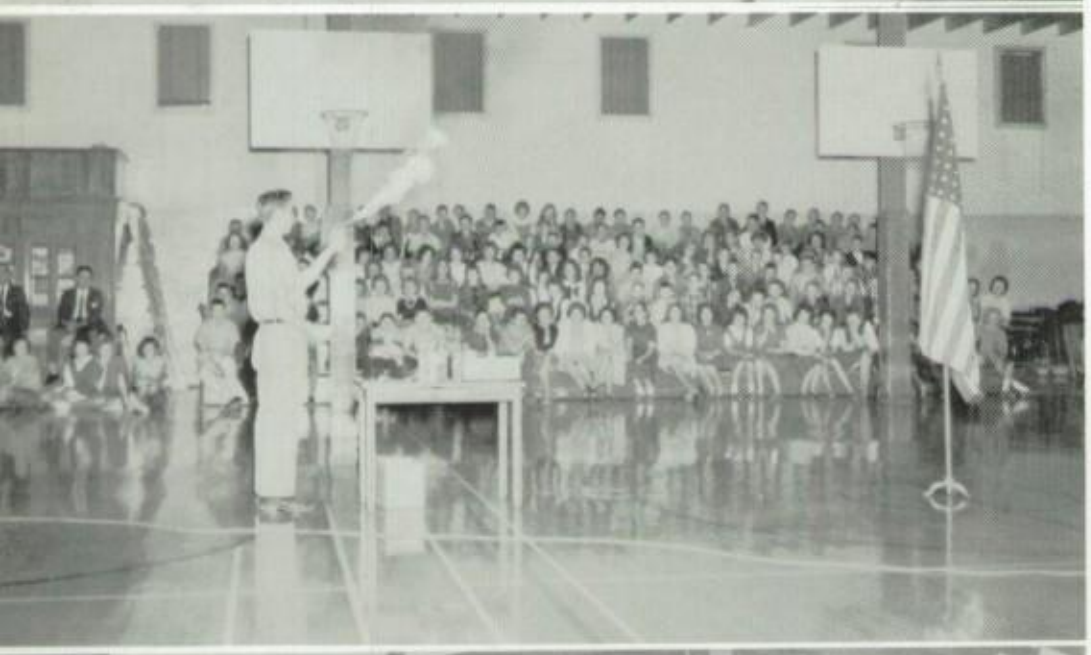
COLLEGE DAY

The purpose of College Day is to allow the student to see the many opportunities college has to offer. Various representatives from different colleges are shown.



HALLOWEEN PARTY

Here we see two students, J. W. McCort and Patsy Grapes, acting as guinea pigs for some pie throwing. This was just one of many fun games.



FIRE PREVENTION

Fire Chief, Glendon Shriver, is shown demonstrating what can happen with a can of hair spray and an open flame.

CHEERLEADING TRYOUTS

This is just two of many girls who tried out for the honor of Junior High Cheerleader. Donna Dayton and Anna Bosley were selected.

CHRISTMAS

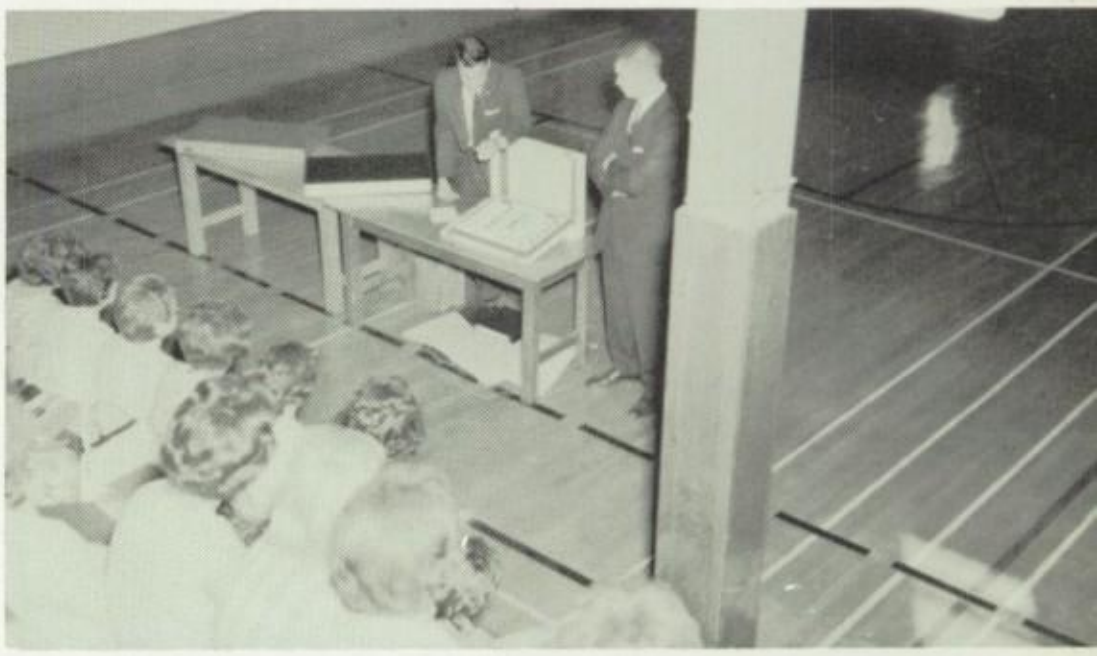
The spirit of Christmas was very strong and delightful at F. A. H. S. this year. Christmas trimmings of all sorts were hung in many classes.

TESTS

Each year students take this test. It requires the thinking and concentration of many different problems.

JUNIORS SELECT RING

Mr. Richardson, representing the Balfour Company is shown here helping the Juniors select their class ring.



NATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL
ORATORICAL CONTEST

This contest, sponsored each year by the American Legion, is eligible to students in senior high school. It consists of a prepared oration and an extemporaneous speech. This year's topic was to be prepared on some phrase of the constitution. The winner was Patty Kirkpatrick.

P.T.A. EXECUTIVE BOARD

Objectives:

To bring into closer relation the home and school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child.

To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education.

To promote the welfare of children and youth in the home, school, church, and community.

To raise the standards of home life. To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.
